

Fridays on the Canal: 2026 Summer Concert Series

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

About Fridays on the Canal

Fridays on the Canal is more than just a concert series – it's a community celebration.

Hosted by the Town of Scottsville as a non-profit initiative, this free summer series brings people together for live music, local food and drink, and small-town charm. From May through September, Canal Basin Square transforms into a vibrant hub that draws thousands from across Central Virginia.

Proceeds benefit Scottsville's local programming, tourism, and economic development efforts.

Each Event Includes:

- 🎸 Live Music: Regional and nationally touring acts headlining each show
- 🎉 Family Fun: Kid-friendly games, face painting, and rotating community activities
- 🍷 Food & Drink: Local food trucks, wine, beer, mead, and other beverages
- ✨ Full Experience: Lighting for ambiance and safety and on-site security

Audience Snapshot

- Attendance: 1,000+ per event
- Age Range: Primarily 30–65
- Demographics: Middle- to upper-income professionals, families, and retirees
- Occupations: Business owners, entrepreneurs, and professionals in healthcare, education, finance, and real estate
- Reach: Scottsville, Charlottesville, Richmond, Lynchburg, and surrounding counties
